"Rainy Days... A while ago I was contacted by @ora_home to ask if I'd like to try some of their one grab kitchen roll... of course I said YES. It arrived yesterday and I never knew I could be so impressed with kitchen roll! It's pretty so doesn't need to be hidden under the sink and it's surprisingly absorbent. So far the one hand grab offering has proved pretty useful with a grubby toddler who is going through the phase of smearing his lovingly prepared meals over as much of my kitchen as possible. Safe to say I'm a fan +1 Happy Saturday Insta Buddies raised hands"

"Time for some baking - and knowing this little one, much mess will be made! Thankfully I have the fantastic @ora_home household towel to hand! They look great in my kitchen and are so absorbent and strong, they last for ages and are a brilliant alternative to the standard kitchen roll..."

"Good Morning, just wanted to show you all these fab household towels from @ora_home they are so clever, economical and look great in the kitchen. Perfect for cleaning up Hetty's little feet, fridge spillages, polishing glass and dinner parties. They really are so much more than a kitchen towel. I love the fact they are round, super strong and look good on the little stand. Has anyone else tried these?"

- "Love the design of these! Someone's really thought about this too!"
- "I'm going to have to look out for these next time I'm shopping - they'd be perfect in my house"
- "I love this and the little stand"
- "These look so good and easy to use!"
- "Ooh am gonna keep an eye out for these"

"Have you tried @ora_home Kitchen Towels yet? These are so handy for using when one hand is covered in avocado and you need to grab a sheet seedling. These single sheets are great and require no awkward tearing or ripping hearts available in @Tesco and @ocadok. Have you tried them yet?"

"Nice tidy kitchen, I love the look of these @ora_home paper towels! They look so much nicer in the kitchen than usual kitchen roll and are so handy as they have a 'one hand grab' meaning you can quickly take one from the top without getting more than you need. They're really good quality and absorbent, and to be honest I love that it looks like a paper space rocket!"

"Kitchen all cleaned, a productive Monday for a change. Anyone tried the new @ora_home kitchen towels yet? They are fab, I mean instead of a plate for a sandwich, that means less washing up for me raised hands plus they look nice & stylish on the kitchen worktop."
